

Prémio João Monjardino 2023 – Saúde Mental: Investigação Clínica e de Serviços

Resultados da avaliação

O Júri do Prémio João Monjardino 2023 reuniu no dia 15 de novembro para análise das candidaturas submetidas a concurso. Foi selecionada a candidatura da investigadora Deborah Oyine Aluh, primeira autora do artigo “Contextual factors influencing the use of coercive measures in Portuguese mental health care” publicado na International Journal of Law and Psychiatry.

O Júri decidiu igualmente que cinco candidaturas não reuniam as condições para serem aceites, duas, por não preencherem o requisito do limite de idade do(a) candidato(a) previsto no regulamento do concurso, e três, por os artigos científicos propostos estarem fora do âmbito do tema do Prémio João Monjardino 2023 – Saúde Mental: Investigação Clínica e de Serviços.

Os/As candidatas poderão no prazo de 10 dias úteis, a contar da data deste aviso, apresentar comentários em sede de audiência prévia sobre o projeto de resultados da avaliação para o endereço de email premio.monjardino@fct.pt.
